

Environmental Policy

As a company engaged in the handling and reuse of electrical and electronic equipment, Greenworld Technologies Ltd undertakes to provide the best possible service to both our suppliers and customers whilst minimising harm to the environment.

Through a process of continuous evaluation, training, development and monitoring the company is committed to the protection of the environment, prevention of pollution and continual improvement of company environmental system and performance. The Company is committed to fulfil its compliance obligations, including relevant legislation, ISO 14001 and other associated requirements, as falls within the scope of the company's activities, products and services.

Stated aims for the company are:

- To continually improve and prevent pollution.
- To comply with all applicable legal and other requirements to which Greenworld Technologies subscribes which is relevant to our environmental aspects and the consideration of lifecycle perspective
- To provide a framework for setting and achievement of our environmental objectives and targets.
- Where practical, use sustainable resource, work with suppliers, contractors and sub-contractors to improve their environmental performance.
- To communicate our Environmental Policy to all persons working for or on behalf of the organisation.
- To make this policy available to all interested parties and the public on our website and on request.

This policy statement and the environmental initiatives there in are agreed by: -

David Aitken
Managing Director
Dated 16th November 2022